Purpose of the PORB

As part of CGIAR's adaptive management approach, the 2025 planning process was conducted in two phases: i) Planning Phase – This included the development of the Preliminary Work Plans and Budget, through which Program and Accelerator teams defined how their projects would be managed, including objectives, timelines, responsibilities, and required resources. ii) Re-planning Phase – This allowed for updates to the initial plans, incorporating adjustments to reflect the updates made during the re-planning window from 24 March to 23rd June 2025, ensuring alignment with the approved 2025 budget envelopes, Centre allocations, and revised priorities.

This document presents the 2025 Plan of Results and Budget (PORB) for the Multifunctional Landscapes Program. It provides aggregated costing information for planned High-Level Outputs (HLOs) by Area of Work (AoW), along with Cross-Cutting and Management components. It also outlines the implementation timelines for both HLOs and Outcomes, as articulated in the updated Theory of Change (ToC). Additionally, the PORB highlights the intervention geographies, key partners, and mapped Centres W3/Bilateral projects.

Cross-Program collaboration

Program	Primary/Secondary collaboration	Area of Work Title and Number	High level output	Brief description of how each Program contributes
SP02 - Sustainable Farming	1 Farmers have adopted inclusive adaptation and mitigation solutions into their farming practices enhancing their resilience and contributing to a reduction in GHG emissions per unit of production area. 3. Farmers, farmer organizations and stakeholders scale soil health management solutions informed by the evidence generated within the soil health monitoring framework to ultimately reverse land degradation and enhance ecosystem services including carbon sequestration, hydrological function, above and below ground biodiversity and productivity. 5a. Farmers adopt water innovations to reduce water-related risks to agronomic gain. 7 Small and medium-scale farmers adopt and benefit from bundles of farm system innovations from which particularly women, youth, or other disadvantaged groups will benefit.	AoW1- Solutions and Innovations: Agroecology, Nature-positive, Regenerative and Nutrition-sensitive
SP03 - Sustainable Animal and Aquatic Foods	PO3 - Communities within animal and aquatic food systems adopt innovations for increased social, economic and environmental resilience. PO5 - Market actors, including women, youth and marginalized groups invest in market systems innovations for equitable, efficient, low-emission and resilient animal and aquatic food systems.	AoW 3-Markets and Business Models; AoW 5-Gender Equality, Social Inclusion and Fairness
SP05 - Better Diets and Nutrition	Food traders, processors, and/or retailers adopt effective components of bundled solutions to reduce food loss and waste	AoW1- Solutions and Innovations: Agroecology, Nature-positive, Regenerative and Nutrition-sensitive, AoW 3-Markets and Business Models

Program	Primary/Secondary collaboration	Area of Work Title and Number	High level output	Brief description of how each Program contributes
SP06 - Climate Action	1 Small-scale producers and other food, land, and water (FLW) system actors — including women, youth, and marginalized groups — use climate advisory services, early warning systems, or adaptive safety nets to manage climate risks and adopt new practices and benefitting from deep engagement models that result in demonstrable changes in behavior, improved resilience, and generates co-benefits on food security and poverty reduction; 4 Producers and other food, land, water system actors adopt locally-led adaptation solutions; 8 Government, development partners and the private sector actors mobilize financing to support low-emissions development informed by CG science and evidence.
